7 SPENCER NEAMAN, et al.,

Case No. 2:16-CV-217 JCM (PAL)

8 Plaintiff(s),

ORDER

9 v.

10 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA EX REL
11 UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF
12 HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, et al.

13 Defendant(s).

15 Presently before the court is the government's motion to dismiss counts two and four of 16 the complaint. (ECF No. 11). Plaintiffs did not file a response, and the deadline to respond has 17 now passed.

18 This is a medical malpractice action arising out of the care and treatment of F.N., a minor,
19 in March 2013. (ECF No. 1). Wendover Community Health Center is a division of Nevada Health
20 Centers, Inc. ("NHC"). NHC is a federally supported health center pursuant to the Public Health
21 Service Act. 42 U.S.C. §§ 254(b), 224 (g)-(n). Consequently, Wendover Community Health Center
22 and its employees are considered employees of the federal government. (ECF No. 11). As federal 23 employees, any civil tort action against these individuals or entities is subject to the provisions of 24 the Federal Tort Claims Act ("FTCA").

25 Plaintiffs allege that physician assistant Emilse Peraza, an employee of NHC, failed to 26 diagnose F.N. with appendicitis on March 4, 2013. (ECF No. 1). Counts two and four of the 27 complaint allege theories of negligent supervision, training, and hiring. (Id.). The government
28

1 moves to dismiss counts two and four because they set forth claims expressly barred by the FTCA.
2 (ECF. No. 11).

3 Pursuant to District of Nevada Local Rule 7-2(d), “the failure of an opposing party to file
4 points and authorities in response to any motion shall constitute a consent to the granting of the 5 motion.” LR 7-2(d). However, the court will not automatically grant every unopposed motion.

6 Instead, the court must weigh the following factors before dismissing the action: (1) the 7 public’s interest in expeditious resolution of litigation; (2) the court’s need to manage its docket;
8 (3) the risk of prejudice to the defendants; (4) the public policy favoring disposition of cases of 9 their merits; and (5) the availability of less drastic sanctions. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53
10 (9th Cir. 1995).

11 Having considered the motion and plaintiff’s complaint in light of the Ghazali factors, the 12 court will grant the motion to dismiss counts two and four. The court finds that the first three 13 factors—the public’s interest in expeditiously resolving this litigation, the court’s interest in 14 managing the docket, and the risk of prejudice to defendants—all weigh in favor of dismissal. See
15 Ghazali, 46 F.3d at 53; Anderson v. Air West, 542 F.2d 522, 524 (9th Cir. 1976) (holding that a 16 presumption of injury arises from the occurrence of unreasonable delay). The remaining factors
17 are outweighed by the arguments supporting dismissal. Plaintiffs had ample opportunity to respond
18 to the instant motion to dismiss and failed to do so. Based on the foregoing, the court will grant
19 the government’s motion to dismiss counts two and four of the complaint.

20 Accordingly,

21 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the government’s
22 motion to dismiss (ECF No. 11), be, and the same hereby is, GRANTED.

23 DATED May 23, 2016.
